The Operation: SPIRIT Parent Handbook addresses over 40 tough issues parents face while parenting teens and preteens. It covers each topic in an easy to understand format, offering current trends, misconceptions, warning signs and advice for parents. Topics addressed include underage drinking, teen sex, teen pregnancy, cell phones, current media topics, social networking, violence in schools, depression, teen suicide, drugs and alcohol and social issues such as cliques and clusters. The handbook also offers a section about how to communicate with your teen, the teen brain and information about the Operation: SPIRIT non-profit organization. 3-color publication, with full color cover.
